

Constitutional Examinations Slated at EC

Constitutional Examinations will be given at El Camino College on Friday, October 25, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. in room 55-6. All residents of the El Camino district who are planning to enter the teaching field are reminded that in order to acquire a teacher's credential in California, it is necessary to pass an examination pertaining to the Constitution of the United States.

This announcement was made by John de la Haye, assistant director of instruction.

Obedience Training for Dogs Slated

Gardena Recreation and Parks department announces a Junior Dog Obedience Training program for junior handlers and their pets to commence Tuesday evening, October 15, from 7 to 8 p.m. at Recreation park, 158th st. and Normandie ave in Gardena. Many requests have been received by the Recreation and Parks department from youngsters and their parents for a class conducted exclusively for the younger age group.

Marty Lehr, well known obedience trainer, will conduct the nine week course which will be climaxed by a graduation of both the dog and its handler. Registration will take place at time of first class on Tuesday evening, October 15. Entire proceeds from training course will be donated by the trainer to Recreation park for improvements, play equipment, etc.

The complete nine week course includes: heeling, automatic sit, stand for examination, heel free, figure eight, recall, long sit, long down, and graduation. Highlight of the course will be the graduation at which time dogs and their handlers will be judged and graded by a point system. Trophies will be awarded to highest scoring dog and handler. An E for Effort trophy will be awarded the junior handler, by the trainer, who by their dog's performance, exhibits the most time and effort spent towards their dog's obedience training.

"A dog worth feeding is a dog worth training," states Mrs. Lehr. Many benefits are derived by both the dog and its handler. Course not only teaches dog to get along with other dogs and people, but is a great character builder for the dog as well as the handler. After only two or

School Group to Hear Report on Construction

A report on the progress of the school construction program will be made to the Torrance Educational Advisory committee by Samuel Waldrip, assistant Superintendent of Schools, on October 14. The committee meets at the YWCA, 2320 W. Carson st., at noon.
